

Rebuild by Design Living with the Bay

The Governor’s Office of Storm Recovery invites the public to attend the first Rebuild by Design (RBD) Living with the Bay Citizens Advisory Committee (CAC) meeting to discuss the coastal and social resiliency measures planned in and adjacent to the communities in the Mill River Watershed, in Nassau County, Long Island.

What is the Citizens Advisory Council (CAC): The CAC is a group of stakeholders assembled by the State to serve an important advisory and community engagement role with regard to planning and implementation of the Living with the Bay project.
