

NY Rising Community Reconstruction Program

Welcome to Your Second Public Open House Workshop

The New York Rising Community Reconstruction (NYRCR) Program has been established to provide additional rebuilding and revitalization assistance to communities severely damaged by Superstorm Sandy, Hurricane Irene, and Tropical Storm Lee.

This public open house workshop is focused on gathering your knowledge, experience, and recommendations that are essential in the development of your community's reconstruction plan.

We invite you to provide input on your NYRCR Committee's Conceptual Plan that includes recovery strategies and a preliminary list of potential projects. We also request your input on your community's highest priority assets for a more resilient future. Thank you for participating!

Schedule for tonight's open house workshop:

5:00-6:15pm: Open House Workshop (see format on reverse side)

6:15-7:00pm: Conceptual Plan Presentations:

- NYRCR Planning Process
- Amityville / Copiague
- Village of Babylon / West Babylon
- Village of Lindenhurst
- Regional Planning

7:00-8:00pm: Open House Workshop (see format on reverse side)

NY Rising Community Reconstruction Program

Format for tonight's public open house workshop:

Station 1: Strategies: Peruse the recovery strategies that have been identified to date to tackle resiliency needs and opportunities. Do you know of additional strategies that you would like your Committee to consider?

Station 2: Potential Projects: Your Committee is just starting the process of identifying projects for your community's recovery. Please provide feedback on those that are presented tonight and please feel free to provide additional projects for your Committee's consideration.

Station 3: Community Value: Which assets would you consider the highest importance for your community's future resiliency? Of the numerous asset subcategories presented, please use the provided stickers to designate your top five that should be protected or enhanced in the future.

Please also feel free to skim through a copy of your community's NYRCR Conceptual Plan, copies of which have been placed throughout the venue for your convenience.

You can also download and comment on your community's NYRCR Conceptual Plan, view other planning documents, and find out about upcoming events at:
